The Supreme Court Decides It Has No Jurisdiction.

Baxter Triumphant, White Brooks, Melrose and Vanley Take Back Seats.

End of the Remarkable Quo Warranto Contest.

LITTLE ROCK, June 4, 1873. The Supreme Court met this morning at ten o'clock to resume the quo warranto suit against Governor Baxter. After the usual preliminary and preliminary proceedings, the case was argued by the attorneys for the State, and the case was argued by the attorneys for the Governor. The case was argued by the attorneys for the State, and the case was argued by the attorneys for the Governor. The case was argued by the attorneys for the State, and the case was argued by the attorneys for the Governor.

AS TO THE SCOPE OF POWER exercised by the Supreme Court he said it had a general grant of power which made it a Court of general jurisdiction, and in all cases it represents the people of the State, who proceed by their own sovereign right. The constitution says the Legislature is the place for Mr. Brooks to contest his suit with Mr. Baxter, but the people had a right to come to this Court. The constitution says that all contested election cases shall be tried by the Legislature, according to the mode prescribed by them; but there is no way prescribed where, then, should the people go if Baxter and Brooks choose to arrange among themselves the matter in dispute? Mr. Brooks could also come to Court by a bill of rights, even if the Legislature were the place, as alleged. But suppose that the Legislature happened to be democratic and the chief contestant a republican in politics, what would be the result? Why, they would tell the contestant to "go hence," and it is almost doubtful if a proper hearing could be had.

Chief Justice Melrose asked the Attorney General if he would strike out the name of Brooks from the document sought to be filed. Attorney General Vanley—Yes, I will take that responsibility. The Court then ordered a recess from twelve o'clock until five evening for the purpose of consultation.

Governor Baxter, I am informed after the recess to-day received telegrams from Messrs. Clayton & Dorney, saying that they acknowledged him as Governor, and will support him, which seems to show that the Senator Clayton was ever heartily in with the opposition clique in their attempts to oust Baxter.

DECISION OF THE COURT. The Court met again this evening, at five o'clock, and Judge Grey was authorized to render the decision for himself and associates. Chief Justice Melrose only dissenting. Judge Grey said that he was of opinion that upon the paper presented to the Court the writ should not issue against Governor Baxter, and that it was regarded as a contested election case between Brooks and Baxter the Court had no jurisdiction.

THE MODOC MISCELLANEOUS. Captain Jack and his fellow murderers in chains—Scar-faced Charley protests against the "Indignity."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4, 1873. The following dispatch has been received:—

BOYLE'S CAMP, TULARE COUNTY, CALIF., June 2, 1873.—2 P.M.

After writing my report of yesterday I rode to this camp and despatched it by courier. The captives and captors remained at Applegate's ranch. Before night Captain Jack, murderer of General Canby, and Schonchin, Commissioner Meacham's would-be murderer, were taken together and placed with the other warriors in a small building adjoining Applegate's house, under guard. Neither Captain Jack nor Schonchin spoke a word. Not a muscle of Captain Jack's face moved. Scar-faced Charley protested against the indignity in behalf of his fellow captives, and said that none of them intended to escape even if the opportunity offered. He obtained but little satisfaction, and retired in disgust. The usual Sunday evening services of the Warm Spring Indians were dispensed with; instead they held a glorious war dance until midnight. They leaped and howled about the fire, and indulged in other demonstrations of delight.

All the military force of the expedition will be united at this point.

The cord of General Canby's hat was found in Jack's satchel.

Colonel Green's capture was made in Oregon and Colonel Perry's in California. The question now is, what will be done with the Modocs?

The Last of the Modocs To Be Captured.

FAIRCHILD'S RANCH, June 3.—7 P.M. To-day I paid a visit to Old Sheep on one of the small islands in Little Klamath Lake. The old Indian told me he had five Modocs on the island, and would surrender them to John Fairchild, as soon as Fairchild returned from Clear Lake. We saw one of the Indians, Techu Back. He was badly wounded and will probably die.

Fairchild has just returned. To-morrow we will go for the last of the Modocs.

The Modocs to Be Delivered to the Authorities of Oregon for Trial.

WASHINGTON, June 4, 1873. It is said by the highest military authorities that the Modocs could not surrender as "prisoners of war" in the sense known to nations where war is declared in accordance with constituted forms. Not having been so received, they are not entitled to consideration as prisoners of war. The orders issued to the commanding general directly after the assassination of General Canby and Rev. Dr. Thomas were not to exterminate the Modocs; but it was said their conduct had been justifiable, and that their extermination would be justifiable, and that the killing of the Indians he would not have been committed by superior authority. As to their final disposition no one questions that they will ultimately be delivered to the government of Oregon for trial.

A DECREASE IN GERMAN IMMIGRATION.

The directors of the German Society had a meeting at their office, 13 Broadway, yesterday afternoon, when it was decided that during the past month 7,500 German immigrants were landed at Castle Garden, a corresponding month of last year, when 7,500 German immigrants arrived at this port. The first immigration at this port since the late of January amounted to 40,000, showing, compared with the first five months of last year, a decrease of 10,000. The directors of the German Society during that period last year amounted to 40,000. Consul General Johnson has been informed of the decrease.

Fighting Horses Seized at Beacon Park.

BOSTON, Mass., June 4, 1873. Officer Moorehouse, of the Customs' Secret Service, visited Beacon Park yesterday and seized two fighting horses, named Princess and Blue Bonnet, which were imported from Montreal, upon an invoice in which they were designated as "horses."
